

Human Trafficking Quiz

1. Human trafficking requires moving foreigners across national borders, or at least involves some form of travel or transportation.

True False

2. All victims of human trafficking will immediately identify themselves as such to potential rescuers and are desperate to escape.

True False

3. A woman who agrees to be prostituted can still be a victim of human trafficking.

True False

4. A woman that goes to a hotel cannot be a victim of human trafficking because she's obviously not being held against her will.

True False

5. If a girl is 17 and she has willingly decided to work for a pimp that does not use force, fraud or coercion in any way, it is not human trafficking.

True False

6. A trafficking victim might be free to go places, smile when she's doing her job, and even advertise for more customers.

True False

7. Human trafficking in the U.S. only happens to young foreign girls.

True False

8. A person cannot be considered a trafficking victim unless there is evidence of physical violence or kidnapping.

True False

9. A person who is paid for his or her work in the commercial sex industry cannot be considered a victim of human trafficking.

True False

10. Pimp-controlled prostitution can be a form of human trafficking.

True False

11. A person who agrees to submit to slave-like conditions as part of a religious belief or custom could never qualify for services as a survivor of trafficking.

True False